KANSAS CITY PARTNERSHIP GUIDE

2025 - 2026

OUR HISTORY:

Founded in 1988 by Sanford (Sandy) N. McDonnell, Chairman Emeritus of the McDonnell Douglas Corporation, and a small group of dedicated superintendents, CharacterPlus is now the longest-running and largest community-wide character education initiative in the country.

CharacterPlus also oversees Character.org's prestigious National Schools of Character program and the 11 Principles framework used in schools throughout the world.

+50 DISTRICTS

+500 SCHOOLS

+16,000 TEACHERS

+400,000 STUDENTS

In today's rapidly changing world, academic success alone is not enough. Our students need more than knowledge—they need character. At CharacterPlus, we believe that the heart of education lies in shaping students who are not only well-informed but also well-grounded, responsible, and resilient. That's why we are dedicated to helping schools develop positive learning environments where character development is woven into the very fabric of the school culture.

WHAT WE DO

With decades of experience partnering with schools, we empower educators with evidence-based practices, character-based leadership development, and tailored support that foster strong, ethical, and thriving school communities.

OUR TEAM

The Programming Team includes ten doctoral-level school educators, professors, principals, Leadership Academy in Character Education (LACE) graduates and administrator character education experts. The majority of the CharacterPlus team has led schools to State and National Schools of Character acclaim.

OUR IMPACT

Our approach is research-informed, strengths-based, and values-centered. We work hand-in-hand with schools to support whole-child development, because we know that students learn best when they feel safe, valued, and inspired. Our committed school partners report:

- Improved Attendance
- Lower Discipline Referral Rates
- Higher Standardized Test Scores
- Climate Surveys Reporting Greater Connectedness
- 5% Higher ACT Scores
- Renewed Teacher Sense of Purpose
- Increased Sense of School Community

PARTNERS

"The Teacher Academy in Character Education helps put character at the forefront of educating students...the professional development is highly collaborative and something I can use immediately in the classroom."

"Putting character education at the center of a school's purpose is the most rewarding thing to do for student success."

"I leave dLACE each time with new understandings and ideas that fit perfectly into the direction we hope to move. I feel like we can implement successful change with regard to character education and not have it be 'just one more thing.'"

"It was incredibly energizing to be around educators who are SO invested in character education and working with children!!...thank you very much for your work and for sharing your expertise! Yesterday was the BEST professional development I've experienced in years!!!"

"The CharacterPlus staff who were leading TACE were doing an excellent job. The educators were all so engaged, and the atmosphere was supportive and encouraging. It really gave me great insight into the work that CharacterPlus is doing and how it affects real, meaningful change when those educators bring what they learn back to their schools."

"As our expert in character education leadership, thank you for the safety of being vulnerable and sharing wins and struggles because that's the type of environment that fosters growth. Students are happy, and staff are happy. I'm super grateful, with eyes full of tears and a heart full of gratitude. Thank you!"

school climates and c2 cultures of excellence audit

We are often asked by schools if we have a general assessment of how aligned their practices are with the 11 Principles, or if there are key components missing before they apply for Schools of Character recognition. The c2Audit is based on our years of experience helping schools transform their culture and climate.

A consultant from our programming team will spend approximately 2-3 hours at your school during a typical school day. They will tour the building and meet with the administration and/or culture and climate team to learn about the level of character education implementation in the school.

This process will create a list of implementation possibilities aligned with the requirements of the School of Character framework, as well as recommendations regarding the school's next steps for implementation and, if applicable, timing for applying to Schools of Character.

"This was one of the best assessments we have ever done, and it has provoked great conversations about what we can continue to improve upon! It's definitely impacting and guiding our goals for the future, too."

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMMING

THE ATHLEADERSHIP ACADEMY IN CHARACTER EDUCATION
by characterplus

The High School Athleadership Academy in Character Education (AACCE) provides character education skill-building for secondary school athletes. CharacterPlus has adapted its K-12 evidence-based process for creating Autonomy (voice and choice), Belonging (being part of a community), and Competence (the ability to do something successfully) for high school coaches and their athletes. Annually, each participating high school selects student-athletes from every sport to attend AACCE training in order to become AACCE Character Ambassadors.

- 3 Two-Hour Sessions (Fall, Winter, Spring) ●
- Coaches Training (Virtual Asynchronous) ●
- Up to 45 Athleaders per session ●
- $3,500 per High School ●
- Dates Determined in Coordination with Coaches ●
- Guidelines/Suggestions Provided to ADs Each Season ●
(AD to meet with Fall Sports, Winter Sports, and Spring Sports during season to highlight implementation of AACCE programming)

AACE OUTCOMES INCLUDE:

- athletes feeling valued
- a sense of belonging for teammates
- team culture that actively includes athlete's voice
- stronger social, emotional, character, and performance skills
- model student-athlete leaders who make a positive impact on their teams, schools, and fans

What athletes and coaches say about the Athleadership Academy in Character Education's impact:

"we are a more unified family"

"this gives coaches the opportunity to work on being a transformational versus a transactional coach, which is often the default"

"we cannot wait to continue our meetings as AACCE character ambassadors"

"we are creating competitive and passionate athletes who also have extraordinary character on and off the field"

Character-Based DISCIPLINE

"Maintaining the dignity of each student while constantly working toward the long-term goal of self-directed, self-regulated, and responsible behavior."

Humans learn and process through social interactions. Our behaviors are heavily influenced by our experiences with others. This academy explores the neuroscience behind human behavior and unpacks the essential elements that students need to be their best selves. Regardless of the discipline program your school uses, this session will enhance your practice by increasing your understanding of proactive research-based implementation strategies for before, during, and after behavior challenges occur.

ACADEMY FEE

$600 per participant. NON-PARTNER $720. Lunch included.

Learn to Apply:

- discipline that is structured and also maintains the dignity of both student and staff member
- proactive strategies to improve relationships
- during-incident strategies to promote self-regulation
- post-incident strategies to encourage reason and repair

CharacterPlus Way®

CharacterPlus Way® is an evidence-based process developed by CharacterPlus to transform school climate, increase academic achievement, and reduce behavior referrals. The three-year process was the focus of a federally funded study, with the successful results published nationally.

Results reflect that the CharacterPlus Way is a compelling process that significantly impacts school culture, resulting in healthier schools where students are engaged in more prosocial behavior with a significant reduction in discipline referrals and increases in achievement.

Customized on-site coaching and consultation services are at the core of the process. This allows schools to address their specific issues at a pace that works for their staff and students, ultimately leading to whole-school transformation. CharacterPlus Way process schools include early childhood, elementary, middle, and high schools.

CharacterPlus Way federal research grants provided data that showed when implemented with fidelity:

- staff morale was higher
- staff possessed a strong sense of purpose
- staff and students enjoyed a higher level of administrative support
- more students scored at proficient or advanced on state assessment tests
- students demonstrated more prosocial behavior
- school safety improved
- fewer student behavior office referrals occurred
- students felt greater feelings of belonging and autonomy
- and students were more likely to view the school as a community

Over the last three decades of positively impacting school culture and climate, CharacterPlus has become an evidence-based leader in assessing the critical factors that lead to great schools.

Character Visions is a character and inter- and intrapersonal skills curriculum that impacts middle school students' sense of autonomy, belonging, and competence. The easy-to-follow lessons, based on best practice, foster collaboration between students, encourage critical thinking about themselves and the world, and help them be active participants in creating a positive classroom and school community.

Character Visions helps middle schoolers explore:

- the character traits they would like to live by •
- what is happening in their community and how to make a positive impact •
- connections to school and other students •

Character Visions Levels 1 and 2 are currently available, and Level 3 will be available for the 26-27 year.

educators beyond the classroom

For hundreds of children in your school district, their bus driver, custodial staff, lunchroom team, before-school care, nurse, para-professionals, and administrative assistants are the first educators they interact with as they begin their school day. As a result, your school's character initiative is put in motion long before students enter the classroom. Ensure your school thrives with every interaction with Culture Carriers by CharacterPlus. Build positive character and inter- and intrapersonal skills with your educators beyond the classroom.

Culture Carriers will help your school community by:

Creating stronger bonds and a sense of belonging for all support staff in your school

Giving bus drivers and all support staff the tools to strengthen relationships on buses, in the lunchroom, and throughout the building

Providing students an increased sense of belonging and safety in every school setting

Building an in-depth understanding of why each staff member matters in this effort, and how their actions and words strengthen school climate and culture

Sharing real-world examples of how students view all adults in their school community as role models

The District Leader Academy in Character Education (dLACE) is a grant program for Missouri school districts that develops district-level champions for character development and school climate initiatives. The process CharacterPlus uses determines strengths and suggests strategic enhancements to ensure districts use research-based practices that make their schools the best places for teaching, learning, and personal growth.

Grant awardees will participate in workshop sessions, personalized coaching, and leadership training in character development.

Through participant workshop sessions, coaching, on-site training, quarterly regional meetings, and school observations, district leadership will be equipped to guide their district's character and climate initiatives.
